

WEEKLY THEMES 2021

• Week One: Ancient Greek Week

Where did theater start? Back to Ancient Greece we go to learn about the origins of comedy and tragedy, mask and myth - and have some fun along the way!

• Week Two: Fairy Tales

A Summer Stars favorite – we'll write and perform our own fabulous fairy tales this week!

• Week Three: Folk Tales from Afar

Every culture has its own folktales and fables. This week, we'll go around the globe to discover and perform some of these culturally significant stories.

• Week Four: Environmental Theater

We'll learn how we can use theater and the arts to create awareness about our environment and celebrate the beauty & importance of nature.

• Week Five: Midsummer Shakespeare

'Tis the week to study Shakespeare with the magical tale, A Midsummer Night's Dream!

• Week Six: Acting Out Art

Every painting tells a story, and a picture is worth a thousand words. This week, we will be bringing works of art to vivid life on the stage!

• Week Seven: Theater for Change

This week we'll examine how theater can help promote positive change in the world, and create performances based on issues important to our campers.

• Week Eight: Vineyard Historical Fiction

What was it like to live on Martha's Vineyard in the past? We will close out the summer exploring exciting historical tales from our island.
